PRIVATE LESSON SCHEDULE

Private in-home lessons take place on the same day and at the same time once or twice a week. For example, if we agree upon Mondays at 3:00 p.m., that will be your scheduled time each week going forward. If you are paying on a session-by-session basis, you must pay in advance to reserve the time for your next session.

CANCELLATION POLICY

For private lessons, if I am not completely satisfied after our first lesson, I will receive a prorated refund. The cost of the first lesson is non-refundable. For this to apply, I must notify Wagging Rights Dog Training, LLC in writing within 24 hours after the first lesson and return all equipment in good condition. Other than this condition, there are no refunds. No-shows or appointments cancelled less than 24 hours in advance will forfeit their deposit and/or class time. The only exceptions are illness, family emergencies, and inclement weather. Class appointments cancelled 24 hours or more in advance may be rescheduled without penalty. I understand that a purchased program must be completed within six months of its starting date. For Board & Train programs, a 50% deposit is required and is non-refundable. My program may be rescheduled without penalty with at least two weeks' notice. Otherwise, a separate deposit will be required to hold the new date. There are no refunds for any payments and/or deposits for cancellation of a Board & Train program without two weeks' notice.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

I understand that I have a vital role in my dog's learning process and in achieving the desired results. Although Wagging Rights Dog Training, LLC guarantees that every effort will be made to ensure my satisfaction and positive behavioral modification, I acknowledge and agree that there is no guarantee that my dog will achieve the desired level of training or be cured of its behavioral issues, despite the trainer's best efforts. I also understand and agree that failure to fully disclose any major aggression, anxiety, or fear disorders my dog may have or display while under my trainer's care, which could place a person or animal at risk, will void my Wagging Rights Dog Training, LLC Obedience Guarantee. I understand that while my dog will still obtain a high level of obedience training, aggression and anxiety disorders are psychosomatic in nature and, while possible to manage, may not be changed. Our guarantee is contingent on the owner's and family's active and ongoing participation and consistent practice of what is learned in training. Continual training, practice, and adherence to the provided guidelines must continue after the dog's program has ended. True success is achieved through the owner's willingness to maintain the obedience standard. Failure to comply will negate the guarantee.

I acknowledge and agree that I am solely responsible for my dog and my dog's actions during training and in the future. I acknowledge and agree that any training my dog and I receive or contract for does not constitute any guarantee whatsoever that my dog will not cause harm or loss, intentional or unintentional, to a human being, animal, or property. I hereby hold Wagging Rights Dog Training, LLC harmless from any liability for my dog or any of my dog's actions, including, but not limited to, intentional or unintentional actions that cause harm or loss to a human being, animal, or property during the training period or at any time in the future.

MISCELLANEOUS

The owner/agent is responsible for purchasing equipment recommended by the trainer. If either party employs legal counsel to protect its rights under this agreement, the prevailing party agrees to pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees.
